RECOMMENDED ORDER OF SPECIAL DEPUTY

TO: Assistant Director,
Executive Director,
Reemployment Assistance Services
DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

This matter comes before the undersigned Special Deputy pursuant to the Petitioner's protest of the Respondent's determination dated August 14, 2012.

After due notice to the parties, a telephone hearing was held on November 6, 2012. The Petitioner was represented by its Certified Public Accountant. The Petitioner's managing member testified as a witness. The Respondent, represented by a Department of Revenue Tax Auditor III, appeared and testified.

The record of the case, including the recording of the hearing and any exhibits submitted in evidence, is herewith transmitted. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were received from the Petitioner.

Issue:

Whether the Petitioner's tax rates were properly computed, pursuant to Section 443.131, Florida Statutes; Rules 73B-10.026; 10.031, Florida Administrative Code.

Whether the Petitioner's liability for reemployment assistance contributions was properly determined pursuant to Sections 443.1215, 1216, 1217; 443.131, Florida Statutes.

Findings of Fact:

1. E Z Sweep Corp is a Florida profit corporation which was formed in 2000 to operate a road construction clean-up business. E Z Sweep Corp established liability for payment of unemployment tax in the third quarter 2000.
2. The owner of E Z Sweep Corp is Teresa J. Nichols. In June 2003 Teresa Nichols became Teresa Nichols-Dotts when she married Glenn Dotts. In 2003 Glenn Dotts became a director of E Z Sweep Corp.

3. Effective March 1, 2009, Glen Dotts formed Charmer's Asset Holdings, LLC, a Florida limited liability company. Glenn Dotts is the sole owner and sole managing member of Charmer's Asset Holdings, LLC. Charmer's Asset Holdings, LLC is the Petitioner in this case.
4. Initially, the business of Charmer's Asset Holdings, LLC was the purchase and resale of heavy equipment. The Petitioner did not have any employees or payroll. Due to the economy E Z Sweep Corp experienced financial problems in 2010. The Internal Revenue Service froze the bank account of E Z Sweep Corp and creditors began seizing the equipment. The Petitioner acquired some of the equipment that was owned by E Z Sweep Corp and began performing road construction clean-up services effective July 1, 2010.
5. The Petitioner hired the employees of E Z Sweep Corp to perform services for the Petitioner. The Petitioner registered for payment of unemployment tax effective July 1, 2010, as a new business. The initial tax rate of .0270, the tax rate that is assigned to all new businesses, was assigned to the Petitioner.
6. E Z Sweep Corp had contracts which it was obligated to complete. E Z Sweep ceased operations on October 31, 2010, after completing the contracts. From July 1, 2010, through October 31, 2010, the employees worked concurrently with the Petitioner and E Z Sweep Corp.
7. The Department of Revenue has a computer program that identifies the social security numbers of employees who are transferred from one employer to another employer. The computer program identified that the employees of E Z Sweep Corp were transferred to the Petitioner effective November 1, 2010. Further investigation revealed that at the time of the transfer Glen Dotts was a director of E Z Sweep Corp and the managing member of the Petitioner. Further investigation also revealed that that Teresa Nichols-Dotts and Glenn Dotts were husband and wife at the time of the transfer.
8. By determination mailed on or before August 14, 2012, the Department of Revenue notified the Petitioner that since it appeared that the Petitioner had acquired the workforce of E Z Sweep Corp on or about November 1, 2010, and since there was common ownership, management, or control at the time of the transfer, the tax rate of E Z Sweep Corp was transferred to the Petitioner resulting in a tax rate of .0640 effective January 1, 2011. The Petitioner filed a timely protest by mail postmarked August 16, 2012.

Conclusions of Law:

9. Section 443.131(3), Florida Statutes, provides:
 - (g) Transfer of unemployment experience upon transfer or acquisition of a business.-- Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon transfer or acquisition of a business, the following conditions apply to the assignment of rates and to transfers of unemployment experience:
 - 1.a. If an employer transfers its trade or business, or a portion thereof, to another employer and, at the time of the transfer, there is any common ownership, management, or control of the two employers, the unemployment experience attributable to the transferred trade or business shall be transferred to the employer to whom the business is so transferred. The rates of both employers shall be recalculated and made effective as of the beginning of the calendar quarter immediately following the date of the transfer of the trade or business unless the transfer occurred on the first day of a calendar quarter, in which case the rate shall be recalculated as of that date.
10. Section 443.131(3)(g)7.b., Florida Statutes, provides that "trade or business" shall include the employer's workforce.
11. Rule 73B-10.031(3), Florida Administrative Code, provides in pertinent part that for the purpose of implementing Section 443.131(3)(g), F.S.:

- (a) The term “ownership” means any proprietary interest in a business, including, but not limited to, shares of stock in a corporation, partnership interest in a partnership or membership interest in a Limited Liability Company (LLC).
 - (b) “Common ownership” exists when a person has ownership in two or more businesses.
 - (c) A person in “management” includes any officer or director of a corporation, owner of a sole proprietorship, partner in a partnership, manager of an LLC, or person with the ability to direct the activities of an employing unit, either individually or in concert with others.
 - (d) “Common management” exists when a person concurrently occupies management positions in two or more businesses.
 - (e) A person in “control” of a business includes any officer or director of a corporation, owner of a sole proprietorship, partner in a partnership, manager of an LLC, or other person with the ability, directly or indirectly, individually or in concert with others, to influence or direct management, activities or policies of the business through ownership of stock, voting rights, contract, or other means. Control exists when an employee leasing company dictates or specifies the businesses with which a client company must contract.
 - (f) “Common control” exists when a person or group of persons has control of two or more businesses.
 - (g) The phrase “transfer or acquisition” encompasses any and all types of transfers and acquisitions including, but not limited to, assignments, changes in legal identity or form, consolidations, conveyances, mergers, name changes, purchase and sale agreements, reorganizations, stock transfers and successions.
 - (h) The phrase “trade or business or a portion thereof” includes but is not limited to assets, customers, management, organization and workforce.
 - (i) For the purpose of determining issues relating to the transfer of employment records upon transfer or acquisition of a business, the term “person” has the meaning set forth in Section 7701(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.
 - (j) In determining whether common management, ownership, or control exists, the Department may consider common relationships between owners or persons who exert control over or occupy management positions in the businesses under consideration. For purposes of this rule, a common relationship exists when persons are related to each other by marriage, step-relationships, direct line blood relationships such as grandchild, child, parent, grandparent (lineal consanguinity) or adoption. A common relationship is also deemed to exist between affiliated groups as defined by Section 199.023(8), F.S. and between affiliated corporations as defined in Section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. (Emphasis supplied)
12. The evidence presented in this case reveals that the Petitioner acquired the workforce of E Z Sweep Corp on November 1, 2010. At the time of the transfer Glenn Dotts was the sole owner and sole managing member of the Petitioner. His wife, Theresa Nichols-Dotts, was the owner of E Z Sweep Corp. Because of the common relationship identified in Rule 73B-10.031(3)(j), Florida Administrative Code, it is concluded that there was common ownership, management, or control at the time of the transfer. Thus, the unemployment experience attributable to E Z Sweep Corp must be transferred to the Petitioner.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the determination dated August 14, 2012, be AFFIRMED.

Respectfully submitted on November 30, 2012.

R. O. SMITH, Special Deputy
Office of Appeals
