The Work Registrant Report allows you to track applicants referred by the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to complete the online WT work registration as well as customers who have been given access to online work registration by program staff to comply with a WT sanction. Prior to the release of this report, work registrants were showing in the “No Recorded Activity” report as customers who were not assigned to an activity. Work Registrants will no longer show in the “No Recorded Activity” report.
