B. Employer Account Verification in Employ Florida

LWDB staff must conduct an independent verification of a newly registered employer account prior to enabling an employer account or releasing any job order to jobseekers. Methods of verification include phone call, email inquiry, website review, State of Florida's Department of State, Division of Corporations, or onsite in person review.

LWDBs must have local policies and procedures in place to ensure sufficient vetting of employer accounts and job orders. Additionally, each LWDB must:

1. Verify the employer's registration information to include the business name, address, contact person and contact information. Verification of the registration may be conducted through electronic means such as email or by telephone and must be documented in a case note.
2. For in-state employers, verify the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN)/Tax Identification Number (TIN) and entity's name on the Department of State, Division of Corporation's Sunbiz website. If the business is not registered in Sunbiz as required, do not enable or approve the employer's registration until such information is available for verification.
3. For out-of-state employers, verify the FEIN/TIN and entity's name using the appropriate state's division of corporation's website. If the information is unavailable for verification, do not enable the registration in Employ Florida.
4. For staff assisted registration of employer accounts, staff must conduct a follow-up and final review via email or telephone with the employer to confirm the information listed in the registration is accurate and document the method used for the approval process in case notes for all staff assisted registration of employer accounts.
5. Review all submitted job orders for compliance with federal and state laws, and the Employ Florida Terms and Conditions of Use.

Staff must enter a case note when verifying an employer that, at a minimum, includes the method of contact, the name and title of the contact (if applicable), whether the employer is registered in the appropriate state's corporations website, and the method used to verify the employer before an employer account may be enabled in the system.

Employer accounts must be verified within two business days of the date of the initial registration. If the verification process cannot be completed within two business days, staff must place the employer's account in a "Not Verified" status. Upon placing an employer's account in a Not Verified status, staff must notify the employer of the action and ask the employer to correct the missing/needed information as soon as possible. The account must remain in Not Verified status until the employer's information is properly reviewed and verified in accordance with state and local policy. If the validity of an employer cannot be verified or if staff believes that the account is suspicious in nature, staff should alert the LWDB manager. The LWDB manager should immediately elevate concerns of suspicious activity in Employ Florida to the Department of Economic Opportunity via email at: EFAccountReferral@deo.myflorida.com.

C. Third-Party Agent Verification

LWDBs must ensure job orders posted by third-party agents are in accordance with the Employ Florida Terms and Conditions of Use. Third-party agents that use the Employ Florida system to post job openings for an employer must:

1. Obtain the employer's written consent to post job orders on the Employ Florida website and provide it to LWDB prior to posting an open position.
2. Use only the employer's name and FEIN to register an account, unless the third-party agent is the employing entity.
3. List the employer's address of record and contact information as the primary contact and list the third-party agent's address of record and contact information as the secondary contact for verification purposes. Note: the employer's address may be suppressed and hidden from jobseekers.
4. Meet the same verification requirements listed in Section B of this policy.

D. Discontinuation of Services

Pursuant to 20 CFR 658, a career center must initiate procedures to discontinue services to an employer or third-party agent in certain instances. Some reasons for discontinuing services include, but are not limited to, an employer or third-party agent who:

1. Submits and refuses to alter or withdraw job orders containing specifications which are contrary to employment-related laws.
2. Submits job orders and refuses to provide assurances, in accordance with Agricultural Recruitment System requirements, that Agricultural Recruitment jobs offered are in compliance with employment-related laws.

Career center staff must also initiate procedures to discontinue services if the employer or third-party agent violates the Employ Florida Terms and Conditions of Use.

When discontinuing services, the career center must notify the employer in writing all employment services will be terminated within 20 working days, unless the employer satisfactorily addresses the concerns of the career center within the 20 days. If services are discontinued to an employer subject to Federal Contractor Job Listing

Requirements, the career center must notify the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration (ETA) regional office immediately.

Services may be reinstated to an employer after discontinuation:

1. If the state is ordered to do so by a Federal Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) or Regional Administrator; or
2. If the employer provides adequate evidence that any policies, procedures or conditions responsible for the previous discontinuation of services have been corrected and that the same or similar circumstances are not likely to occur in the future; and
3. The employer has responded adequately to any findings of an enforcement agency, career center, or ETA, including restitution to the complainant and the payment of any fines, which were the basis of the discontinuation of the services.

The career center must notify the employer requesting reinstatement within 20 working days whether his/her request has been granted. If the career center denies the request for reinstatement, the basis for the denial must be specified and the employer must be notified that he/she may request a hearing within 20 working days.
