What is Fraud?

• Fraud = Deliberate deception (by either false statement or omission) perpetrated for unlawful or unfair gain.

Fraud is a crime!
What Is Fraud?

- Fraud schemes come in a variety of forms and may be perpetrated by individuals operating alone or in collusion amongst borrowers, sellers, loan originators, real estate professionals, public officials, agency/non-profit managers and/staff. In a nutshell…ANYONE.

- The commonality among fraud schemes is that each contains some type of material misstatement, misrepresentation, or omission relied upon for a recipient to obtain a “thing of value” (i.e.: money, DPA, Loan, Voucher, etc.).
Common Grant/DPA Fraud Schemes

• Embezzlement
  – Agency management/staff steal grant funds for personal use.

• False Statements/False Claims
  – Agency provided false statements to HUD concealing fraud.
  – Client makes false claims to receive benefits
Common Grant Fraud Schemes

• Duplication of Benefits
  – Client receives benefits from more than one agency for same claim/need.

• Conversion
  – Agency management/staff converts “things of value” such as car, credit cards, money, etc. to personal use.

• Bribery/Kickbacks
  – Exchange of “things of value” in order to gain an illicit advantage
Partnerships to Combat Fraud

- FBI
- FDLE
- IRS
- Other OIGs (SSA, VA, USDA, etc.)
- US Postal Service
- State and Local Agencies
Food For Thought: How To Combat Fraud

- Employees must be well trained in identifying “red flags”.
  - Examples:
    - Transposed Social Security Number
    - Self-Employed with no credit
    - Large earnings with no credit
    - No Credit History
    - Multiple letters of explanation from same creditor
    - Identical letterhead for different creditors
    - Credit report entries not on loan application
    - No down payment prior to loan application
    - Surprise deposit following loan application
    - Account opened shortly before VOD
    - Same bank used for multiple buyers
    - Large deposit following account opening
Food For Thought: Combating Fraud

- Companies should have “Anti-Fraud & Corruption Policy”
- Companies/Agencies/Non-Profits
  - Management should be held responsible for preventing, detecting and reporting fraud, and each member of management should be familiar with the types of signals suggesting possible fraud within his or her scope of responsibilities.
  - Whistle-Blowing Policy which should ensure that complaints are treated with the utmost discretion, professionalism and confidentiality
  - Inform employees of consequences of committing fraud. (e.g. referral to law enforcement, include criminal violation on forms).

“Anti-Fraud & Corruption Policy”, cont.

• Clients
  - Ensure that all questions on applications are completed. If no answer, ensure applicant writes “N/A”
  - Ensure all forms are signed AND dated
  - Include statements regarding consequences of fraud (i.e.: referral for criminal prosecution, include the criminal violation on the form)
Fraud Referrals

• The more information provided (to either HUD/OIG or other investigative agency) the quicker it can determined if an investigation is warranted.
  – Who, what, when, where, why and how?
  – Exhibits are nice if available (i.e. fraudulent documents)
  – Chronological history of events if feasible (how was the misrepresentation discovered, is there a pattern, has this person or group of persons had previous problems)?
  – Often times, investigators receive incomplete or unexplained allegations and are forced to piece together the puzzles when a little additional information could have solved the issue.
