RECOMMENDED ORDER OF SPECIAL DEPUTY

TO: Assistant Director
Agency for Workforce Innovation

This matter comes before the undersigned Special Deputy pursuant to the Petitioner’s protest to a determination of the Respondent dated June 2, 2010.

The record of the case, consisting of the Special Deputy’s Order to Show Cause, with two exhibits attached, is herewith transmitted.

Issue: Whether a response was filed by a party entitled to notice of an adverse determination within fifteen days after the mailing of the Order to Show Cause to the address of record or, in the absence of mailing, within fifteen days after delivery of the order, pursuant to Florida Administrative Code Rule 60BB-2.035(5).

Findings of Fact: On June 2, 2010 a determination was mailed to the Petitioner at its last-known address of record. Among other things, the determination advised:

This letter is an official notice of the above determination and will become conclusive and binding unless you file a written application to protest this determination, within twenty (20) days from the date of this letter. If your protest is filed by mail, the postmark date will be considered the filing date of your protest.

The Petitioner subsequently protested this determination on July 2, 2010. On February 12, 2011, an Order to Show Cause was mailed to the Petitioner, instructing the Petitioner to set forth in writing the reasons why its protest should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. The Petitioner did not respond to the Order to Show Cause. A hearing was scheduled on December 1, 2010.

Conclusions of Law: Section 443.141(2)(c), Florida Statutes, provides:

- (c) Appeals.--The Agency for Workforce Innovation and the state agency providing unemployment tax collection services shall adopt rules prescribing the procedures for an employing unit determined to be an employer to file an appeal and be afforded an opportunity for a hearing on the determination. Pending a hearing, the employing unit must file reports and pay contributions in accordance with s. 443.131.

Rule 60BB-2.035(5), Florida Administrative Code, provides:

(5) Timely Protest.

- (a)1. Determinations issued pursuant to Sections 443.1216, 443.131-.1312, F.S., will become final and binding unless application for review and protest is filed with the Department within 20 days from the mailing date of the determination. If not mailed, the determination will become final 20 days from the date the determination is delivered.
- 2. Determinations issued pursuant to Section 443.141, F.S., will become final and binding unless application for review and protest is filed within 15 days from the mailing date of the determination. If not mailed, the determination will become final 15 days from the date the determination is delivered.
- (b) If a protest appears to have been filed untimely, the Agency may issue an Order to Show Cause to the Petitioner, requesting written information as to why the protest should be considered timely. If the Petitioner does not, within 15 days after the mailing date of the Order to Show Cause, provide written evidence that the protest is timely, the protest will be dismissed.

Rule 60BB-2.023(1), Florida Administrative Code, provides, in pertinent part:

Filing date. ... The date of receipt will be the filing date of any report, protest, appeal, or other document faxed to the Agency or Department...

The evidence in this case reflects that the Order to Show Cause was mailed to the Petitioner at its last-known address on August 4, 2010. The Petitioner did not respond to this Order. In accordance with the above cited sections of the statute and rules, the Petitioner had until August 19, 2010, to provide evidence that the protest was filed timely. The determination has thus become final.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Petitioner’s protest to the June 2, 2010, determination be dismissed due to lack of jurisdiction.

Respectfully submitted on January 28, 2011.
