RECOMMENDED ORDER OF SPECIAL DEPUTY

TO: Altemese Smith
Bureau Chief,
Reemployment Assistance Program
DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

This matter comes before the undersigned Special Deputy pursuant to the Petitioner's protest of the Respondent's determination dated April 25, 2013.

After due notice to the parties, a telephone hearing was held on October 22, 2013. The Petitioner, represented by its president, appeared and testified. The Respondent, represented by a Department of Revenue Tax Specialist II, appeared and testified.

The record of the case, including the recording of the hearing and any exhibits submitted in evidence, is herewith transmitted. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were not received.

ISSUE: Whether the Petitioner is entitled to waiver of penalty and interest for delinquent reports, pursuant to §443.141(1), Florida Statutes; Rule 73B-10.028(4), Florida Administrative Code.

Findings of Fact:

1. The Petitioner is a corporation which operates a used car business.
2. The Petitioner's president prepared the Employer's Quarterly Report for payment of reemployment assistance taxes for the fourth quarter 2010 and mailed the tax report to the Department of Revenue on January 15, 2011.
3. The Petitioner did not have any payroll during the fourth quarter 2010. There were no taxes due for the fourth quarter 2010.
4. Subsequently, the Petitioner received notification from the Department of Revenue that the tax report had not been received. On several occasions the Petitioner provided copies of the tax report to the Department of Revenue. The Department of Revenue received one of those copies on April 11, 2011.

5. The Department of Revenue charged penalties to the Petitioner in the amount of $200 based on the date that the Department of Revenue processed the tax report in September 2011.
6. The Petitioner requested waiver of the penalties. On April 25, 2013, the Department of Revenue denied the request for penalty waiver. The Petitioner filed a timely protest by letter dated May 6, 2013.

Conclusions of Law:

7. Section 443.141, Florida Statutes provides:
 - (1) Past Due Contributions and Reimbursements; Delinquent, Erroneous, Incomplete, or Insufficient Reports.-
 - (a) Interest. Contributions or reimbursements unpaid on the date due shall bear interest at the rate of 1 percent per month from and after that date until payment plus accrued interest is received by the tax collection service provider, unless the service provider finds that the employing unit has good reason for failure to pay the contributions or reimbursements when due. Interest collected under this subsection must be paid into the Special Employment Security Administration Trust Fund.
 - (b) Penalty for delinquent reports.
 1. An employing unit that fails to file any report required by the Department of Economic Opportunity or its tax collection service provider, in accordance with rules for administering this chapter, shall pay to the tax collection service provider for each delinquent report the sum of $25 for each 30 days or fraction thereof that the employing unit is delinquent, unless the agency or its service provider, whichever required the report, finds that the employing unit has good reason for failure to file the report. The department or its service provider may assess penalties only through the date of the issuance of the final assessment notice. However, additional penalties accrue if the delinquent report is subsequently filed.
8. Rule 73B-10.025(1), Florida Administrative Code, provides:
 - (b) Each quarterly report must:
 1. Be filed with the Department of Revenue by the last day of the month following the calendar quarter to which the report applies, except for reports filed by electronic means, which are to be filed as provided in Rule 73B-10.023, F.A.C. However, an employer reporting for the first time is authorized 15 consecutive calendar days from the notification of liability to submit reports for previous calendar quarters without incurring penalty charges; and
 2. Be filed for each calendar quarter during which the employer was liable, even if no contributions are payable. If there was no employment during the calendar quarter to which the report applies, the report must be completed to so reflect.
9. Rule 73B-10.028, Florida Administrative Code, provides:
 - (4) Waiver of Penalty and Interest. Pursuant to Sections 443.1316 and 443.141(1), F.S., the Department is authorized to waive imposition of interest or penalty when the employer files a written request for waiver establishing that imposition of interest or penalty would be inequitable, however, the Department will not consider a request for waiver of penalty until the employer has filed all reports due for the five years immediately preceding the request for waiver. Examples of inequity include situations where the delinquency was caused by one of the following factors:
 - (a) The required report was addressed or delivered to the wrong state or federal agency.
 - (b) Death or serious illness of the person responsible for the preparation and filing of the report.
 - (c) Destruction of the employer's business records by fire or other casualty.

(d) Unscheduled and unavoidable computer down time.(e) Erroneous information provided by the Agency or Department; failure of the Department to furnish proper forms upon a timely request; or inability of the employer to obtain an interview with a representative of the Department. In each case, a diligent attempt to obtain the necessary information or forms must have been made by the employer in sufficient time that prompt action by the Department would have allowed the reports to be filed timely.

10. The Petitioner's un rebutted evidence reveals that the tax report was filed on January 15, 2011, which is prior to the last day of the month following the fourth quarter 2010. Thus, the tax report was timely filed.
11. The Department of Revenue has acknowledged receipt of a copy of the tax report as early as April 11, 2011, and erroneously computed penalties as of the date of processing in September 2011. However, since it has been shown by competent evidence that the tax report was not filed late, no penalties are due.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the determination dated April 25, 2013, be REVERSED.

Respectfully submitted on December 23, 2013.

R. O. Smith, Special Deputy
Office of Appeals
