

WORK SEARCH OPTIONS

It is required that claimants complete 5 work search contacts per week or 1 CareerSource service appointment. Claimants who live in counties with less than 75,000 people are required to complete 3 work search contacts per week or 1 CareerSource service appointment. Green boxes indicate an online work search contact and Blue boxes indicate an in-person appointment.

Visit an employer's place of business and complete an application for employment.

Register and use a career or job-market explorer such as EmployFlorida.com.

Apply to a job posting through the state Florida's job-market explorer EmployFlorida.com.

Create an application for work and submit your application to an employer.

Conducting work searches using internet job banks as well as professional/trade publications.

Telephoning employers to arrange a job interview.

Attend a resume writing class for the purpose of revising and submitting your resume for a job posting.

Attend a job fair.

Attend a job seeking skill class or workshop.

Visit your local CareerSource Center for information about available job opportunities and meet with a career counselor.

Taking skills and interest tests to identify a new occupational field or industry.

Attend a sponsored job networking event in your occupational field or industry.